

Jimena Escurra, LCPC

Haven Youth and Family Services Crisis Intervention Manager

Jimena is a Licensed Clinical Professional Counselor at Haven. She received her MS in community counseling from the University of Wisconsin-Madison and her undergraduate degree in clinical psychology from the University of Buenos Aires, Argentina.

Prior to joining Haven, Jimena's clinical experience includes working in community counseling agencies and school settings. Her approach to therapy is strength-based, drawing on existing strengths and resilience while also providing new skills to help clients navigate life transitions, healing and growing. Jimena is bilingual/bicultural in English-Spanish, utilizing culturally competent and trauma-informed therapy techniques.

Contact Jimena: Jimena_Escurra@havenforyouth.org